

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1883

It is estimated that the London fisheries exhibition attracted not less than 2,500,000 visitors.

The best time on record was made at Prospect Park, N. Y., last Thursday, Jim Keene's gelding, Frank, trotting a mile in 2:08 1/2.

Three hundred suits have been brought against the Canadian Pacific at Montreal by workmen for wages, and damages resulting from lack of proper accommodations.

The railroads of the country employ about 1,600,000 men, most of them in the prime of life. They constitute nearly one-sixth of the voting population of the United States.

AGAIN the Irish priesthood is united against the British government. The plan of exporting the poor from Ireland meets the opposition of the whole Catholic church. The bishops of Ireland have the full approval of the pope in this matter.

GEN. GRANT, it is reported, was surprised to find himself included in a published enumeration of the millionaires of New York the other day, but said that by putting in his children and grandchildren at an average value of $62,500 each he thinks perhaps he can figure up that total.

The Mexican government definitely refuses the demands of the English bondholders to issue $20,000,000 three-per-cent bonds in addition to the recognized debt of $80,000,000. The decision ends the negotiations and the Mexican representative in London has been recalled.

THE Washington Territory legislature has instructed the congressional delegate to exert his influence to procure the appropriation by congress of the sum of $50,000 for the purpose of improving the navigation of the Columbia river from the mouth of the Willamette to the Lower Cascades.

THE N. Y. Post says the Oregon Short Line will be completed to connection with the Oregon Railway and Navigation line next June or July, which will give the Union Pacific a shorter line from Chicago to Portland than by any other railroad, and largely increase its business and profits.

THE annual report of U. S. Treasurer Wyman shows that the total net revenue for the year was $398,285,381, a decrease of $5,237,688. The only increase in receipts was from the sale of public lands. The condition of the treasury and operations thereof is set forth at great length, but the main points of interest have been published from time to time.

WASHINGTON has one thousand pension agents six months ago, it is said, some doing business without signs, some with no office at all but their sleeping rooms, and some who were not known at the bureau. More than three hundred have been suspended from practice during the last eighteen months, about half as many more disbursed, and three hundred more are being investigated.

In the event of war between France and China India will sustain serious injury. The opium trade adds about seven millions to the revenue of India. France, in carrying on hostilities, must proclaim the blockade of the Chinese coast, and thus suspend the opium traffic between India and China. Consequently, the entire financial arrangements of India, so long as the war lasts, will be paralyzed.

THE Southern Pacific Railroad has placed the following peculiar Biblical quotations as an announcement regarding its business: "No passes given to tramps. Do not take the trouble to ask for them. Search the Scriptures. Thou shalt not pass." Nehemiah 13. None shall pass—Isaiah 55:1. This generation shall not pass—Mark 13:30. Though they roar yet can they not pass—Jeremiah 17:31. So he paid the fare and went on."
